

Antoni Munar is a tourism business consultant.

His speciality is the market strategic management.

He has held executive positions in destination management companies, hotel groups, business & professional associations and public administration bodies.

He is actively involved in the internationalization of tourism enterprises.

ESADE Alumni PAD-MK (87)